Packed and Ready to Go

Rev. Clark Stein, Senior Pastor

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans you were led astray to mute idols, however you were led. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says "Jesus is accursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except in the Holy Spirit. —1 Corinthians 12:1-3

A Scottish atheist was spending a quiet day fishing when his boat was attacked by the Loch Ness monster. In one easy flip, the beast tossed him high into the air. Then it opened its mouth to swallow him. As the man sailed head over heels, he cried out, "Oh, my God! Help me!" All at once the scene froze in place and, as the atheist hung in midair, a booming voice came down from the clouds. "I thought you didn't believe in me?" "Come on, God, a minute ago I didn't believe in the Loch Ness monster, either."

After a time of respite and revelry in the summer months, the time is upon us to be about our normal activities. I pray that you have found fun in your travels, a boost to your spirits in your reunions with family and friends, and an ease for your souls in times of relaxation and vacation. It has been fun to catch up with some of you from time to time throughout the summer months, and I look forward to seeing all of you as we get ready to get back to our routines.

As we enter into September, we will spend some time thinking about how we all are really "packed and ready to go" in many ways. I would challenge you to think about what Jesus asks us to do, and we will all ponder the many ways we are equipped to do the tasks before us.

I look forward to our celebration on September 9, as we will kick off our fall season with big festivities once again. Please make plans to be with us, as the rocket car makes its return along with the bounce house, and Kona Ice for all! Add to that one big worship experience, and a pot luck lunch, a return of our wonderful band in the gazebo, and we will be off and running in grand style.

We so often just go about our business, unthinking about all the ways we really are prepared for whatever may come our way. Let's come together and rethink how our time in community strengthens us for the journey. We are prepared for any Loch Ness monster. Let's regather and worship the God who knows us each by name, and hears us when we call...

Peace,

Pastor Clark

Thank you!

In the summer of 2017, I had the amazing opportunity to travel to Liberia, Africa on an educational mission trip with this church. It was life changing event for me. I learned about true poverty and gained an understanding of true need in the world. When I came back, I wanted to find a way to help those in need around the world. I stumbled across an organization called Soles4Souls, a nonprofit organization that helps give shoes to people in need around the world. My sister Sara and I organized a shoe drive at Brecksville UMC. Thanks to your support and generous donations from our church and Brecksville-Broadview Heights High School, we collected 615 pairs of shoes and raised $3,170. According to Soles4Souls, one dollar equals one pair of shoes. We helped provide 3,785 pairs of shoes to people in need all around the world. Thank you for your support! - Megan Louttit

Human Trafficking Happens Here

The Brecksville United Methodist Women are hosting a presentation by Suzanne Lewis-Johnson, the new Executive Director of RAHAB Ministries, an organization fighting human trafficking and helping its victims in Akron, Ohio. On Wednesday, September 5 at 7 pm, Ms. Lewis-Johnson will share her story of how she left her position as an FBI Special Agent to serve as RAHAB's Executive Director. In the FBI, Suzanne led cases that made headlines. She coordinated a Child Exploitation Task Force and became a subject expert on human trafficking, civil rights and violent crimes against children. She said, "In my past profession, I watched prostituted women and children cry out to God for someone to see them. I sat in a hospital room with a trafficked child who begged for an abortion. I mourned when another, hooked by a trafficker, died from a heroin overdose. I listened to countless #metoo stories from girls and women who said they rejected the idea of ever being in a loving relationship with a man, because they'd only known men who treated them as commodities." Lewis-Johnson resigned from the FBI to better share the Truth about trafficking: What you see in the news is only the tip of the iceberg.

RAHAB Ministries is making a difference in the lives of women by providing a drop in center, mentoring, safe housing, training and education for those who have been victims of human trafficking. They also partner with Restore Court, the first juvenile human trafficking docket certified by the Ohio Supreme Court. The Brecksville United Methodist Women have been supporting RAHAB since its first safe house for women opened about 5 years ago. Attendees are encouraged, if so moved, to bring a donation for the women of the safe house. Needed items include full sized shampoo and conditioner, soap, toothbrushes and toothpaste, deodorant, coffee, sugar and paper products. All are welcome and refreshments will be served! To learn more about RAHAB, visit their website at www.rahab-ministries.org.

Bakin' for Bibles

Help support the ministry of the Evening Circle by supporting their bake sale on September 30. Proceeds from the sale will buy Bibles for the residents of Rahab House. If you have questions or would like to become involved with the good work done by the women of the Evening Circle, call Lynn Hobzek at 440-526-6037 or email kezboh@aol.com.

Everyone is welcome and there is no need to RSVP. Our study this fall will be Bill Hybels' Just Walk Across the Room. This study will give us the opportunity to consider our willingness to step outside of our comfort zone and meet people where they are. Hybels will encourage us to love as Jesus did by taking simple (but not always easy) steps in faith.

She and her husband Patrick Mantor, the retired Administrator of Ganta Hospital, worked with many hospitals in the country during the crisis.

Mary has continued to serve the UMC with special emphasis on helping the work of Global Health function well in Liberia. As she nears the end of her missionary service, Mary and Patrick are both itinerating throughout several States where she has been able to forge important partnerships with the people of Liberia.

Come hear Mary and Patrick speak about this important work. Refreshments will be provided by the Missions Committee.

Hope to see you there!

SUNDAY

A BIBLE FOR EVERY CHILD

Sunday, September 23 at 8:45 am
Cake reception to follow at 10 am

Studying Scripture is one of the most important ways we learn about God. Brecksville United Methodist Church presents personal Bibles to each third grade student as a statement of their growing faith development and as recognition of their being old enough to study Scripture on their own.

We celebrate the tradition of presenting Bibles to our third grade students as a gift from the congregation. It is our prayer that this gift will be a starting point for a deeper relationship with God through Christ, enhanced through the study of God's word.

If your child or grandchild is in third grade and would like to receive his or her Bible, contact Jenny Gee at education@brecksvilleumc.com or 440.526.8938.

CHILDREN and YOUTH

Children's Sunday School is open, without charge, to all children from pre-school on up. Teachers are trained volunteers who love children, are committed to their spiritual nurture, and who serve as faith journey companions.

Preschool through 7th grade

Dig a little deeper into your Bibles and into the messages of Jesus. This year we will be focusing on families of faith in the Bible, in our community and our own homes! At BUMC we strive to take our Sunday morning lessons and keep them at the center of our lives the rest of the week. Join your friends to see how to live and love a little better.

Eighth grade Confirmation year

This is a great year! You, along with your teachers, mentors and parents will unpack much of what you have learned in Sunday school through the years and look at the lessons in a new way. We are not afraid of tough faith questions at BUMC... in fact we recognize that it is through the asking of questions that you grow in your faith and begin to claim it as your own. Dana and Jenny will meet with you and a parent individually before the school year begins. Give us a call to set up your time.

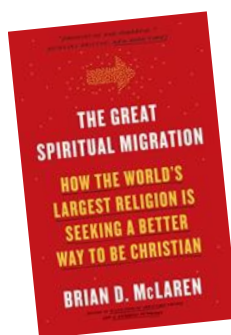

High School

Are you ready to travel the world without leaving Brecksville? Want to learn more about the faiths of the world? Join our high school exploration of world religions during the 10 o'clock education hour. It's sure to be an enlivening, thought provoking study!

CLASSES FOR ADULTS

Book Study:

The Great Spiritual Migration, by Brian McLaren
 September 16- November 4

This was one of our summer book club books this year and it was such a great read we want to encourage many of you to take the time to read it. We will take it a small section at a time and meet Sunday mornings to unpack and discuss. If you have ever felt like you were on the outside looking in at a church or if you have ever struggled to make sense of your faith then this book is for you. Join

Jenny and your faithful friends to read, discuss and share throughout these eight weeks. Books are available on the counter in the parlor—buy one to write in for $15 or borrow and return one at the end of the study.

Theology and the Arts

With Pastor Clark

Christians are made in the image of God the Creator, destined to create music, poetry, fiction, dance and other works of art. Please consider joining in our discussion as we examine how much our theology informs the arts of our popular culture. Please join with Pastor Clark and friends in room 301 during our Sunday School hour for a thought provoking study.

Everyone welcome, anytime!

Nursery Care Available on Sunday Mornings! Our Crib and Toddler Room provides a safe, warm, and comfortable environment for children ranging from newborn to five years old. Our Nursery is staffed with two reliable, responsible caregivers who have been through the Methodist Church's child protection training, Safe Sanctuaries. We have lots of toys for the kids to play with as well as books to read and pages to color. You can bring your own diapers, wipes, bottle/sippy cup or anything else your child may need to be comfortable while in our care.

Donald Day, whose celebration of life was held on August 25. Don and his wife, Evelyn, attended here until her passing. Pastor Barb and the Caring Committee called on him for several years and were delighted by his stories and company.

On August 5, Pastor Clark officiated the celebration of the life of Hazel Fetzek, who was an active member here for more than 30 years, but had most recently been living in Atlanta, Georgia. Mrs. Fetzek was an active participant in our music ministries.

As people of faith, we find God's presence in those who have been blessings to us. At our weekly staff meetings over the last four weeks, the following people were lifted in prayer with thanks to God for the way lives are touched when we reach out to one another in service. People like Payton Schneider, who stepped in at the last minute to serve as a liturgist on a Sunday morning when there was a need; Jen Speith, who donated money from the yoga class she taught to the church as seed money for programs to help families with young children; Kristen Kubek who helps lead us in song in worship, and Kim Meyer, who has committed hours of his time to paint a large classroom on the third floor, saving the church hundreds of dollars. We are so thankful for each of you, named and unnamed, and for all of the ways that you serve as the hands and feet of Jesus!

Brecksville United Methodist Church is called to the ministry of reconciliation. We embrace diversity as a gift. We celebrate our human family's diversity of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, ethnicity, age, faith history, economic status, marital status, physical and mental ability, and education. We affirm that all people are created in the image of God and as beloved children of God, all are worthy of God's love and grace.
