

The Good Word

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF BRECKSVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

- Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

I love snow. I grew up in the Snowbelt, so for me, big snow storms bring memories of waking up to school being cancelled, playing outside for hours, and hot chocolate and homemade chicken noodle soup when we came inside. And the whole community was united, if just for a moment, with our collective inability to go anywhere. We helped one another shovel and plow... so we could make it down to the bluffs to sled.

A big snow also brings a quiet and calm that we don't get any other time of year: no birds chirping, no rustling of leaves, no traffic flying by. Just a hushed stillness as we all hibernate in our own way. I just love it.

I say all this now... writing in January... knowing that if this snow was dumped on us in late March, I would have a very different story to tell!

And it reminds me of Ecclesiastes 3:1, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens..."

This is the season for snow. And in the natural rhythms of life, winter is also a season of slowing down, of darkness, and of retreating. But we don't allow ourselves that kind of winter anymore. Instead, we continue to live life as if nothing has changed—like the days are not shorter and the whole natural world around us isn't quiet and sleeping.

If there was ever a year in which we need to give ourselves permission embrace the natural rhythms of winter, this is it. It's been almost two years since (stupid) COVID shattered our normal. And as if that wasn't enough, we endured the most tumultuous presidential election in recent history, and everything seems like a "hot button topic."

We're exhausted, weary, and grieving. As I talk with people and listen to their stories, I can hear it: we have become unraveled.

So in February, we're going to acknowledge this unraveling and remember that God is in the midst of it. That all throughout human history, people's lives have fallen apart and somehow they survived.

Let us take this season of winter and retreat; slow down and embrace the darkness, knowing that this is not forever—this is only a season.

Take care of yourself,

Rev. Heidi Welch, Senior Pastor

Worship: What's Working Well? What's Not?

When we came back to in-person worship last May, we came back to new worship times. We did this because we saw it as an opportunity to try something new. We had known for a while that our old worship schedule (8:45 & 11:15) wasn't working as well as it did when it was first set. The 11:15 service was dwindling in attendance and spirit, and families were struggling with the time options (one was too early to get kids to worship on time, and the other was too late to get kids to sports and other activities).

So, we put out a survey and asked people to share their thoughts and preferences. Out of that survey came our current worship schedule (8:30 & 10:00). We've given it a solid try, and now it's time to assess: what's working well? What's not? How can it be tweaked?

I am in the process of creating a Task Force to consider these questions and discern the best worship schedule for Brecksville UMC. This Task Force will have people who regularly attend both types of worship service, those who are "seasoned" BUMC-ers, and those who are newer to our community. We will also be sending out another survey to hear from our whole congregation. Every voice matters!

We know that we're not going to find a schedule that suits the preferences of everyone—that's just not possible. But we do want to make sure that we're doing what is best for BUMC—both those who are currently with us and those for whom we are creating space.

I encourage you to pray for this process: for God's wisdom to shine through, guiding us to the incredible things we haven't even imagined yet!

- Blessings, Pastor Heidi

Last spring we explored the lives and legacies of Holy Troublemakers and Unconventional Saints during youth group. We are bringing it back with new people of faith to learn about and get to know. Poets, musicians, politicians, activists, artists, and much more, all who show us that there is no wrong way to be a person of faith. Join us during regular youth group as we learn more about their stories and how we can be holy troublemakers ourselves!

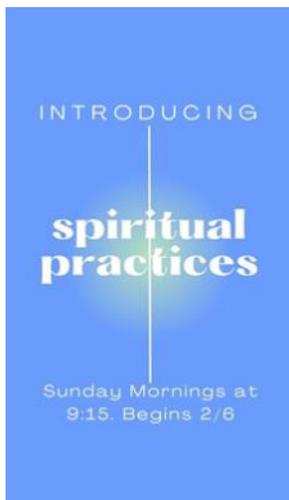

Introducing Spiritual Practices

For teens and Adults—Class begins February 6 in the Chapel.

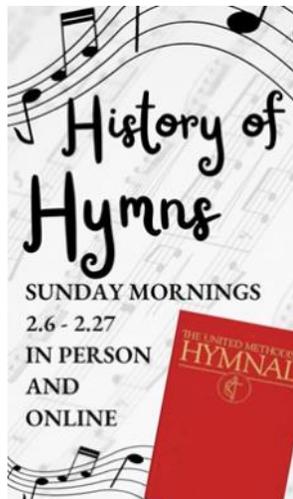

Spiritual practices have always been at the heart and soul of the world's religions. They help us discover our deepest values, address our longing to connect with the divine, and propel us on the journey to wholeness.

Spiritual practices are specific activities you do to deepen your relationships with God and the world around you. They are usually very concrete and practical, but not difficult. They reward presence, not effort. Different types of practices speak to different people. What might be the practice that helps you connect and center most effectively?

Join Jenny Gee Sunday morning, between the 8:30 and 10 am worship service (around 9:15). Each week we will explore a different practice and then have time during the week to try our hand at it.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Hymn History and Sing Along

Sundays after the 10 o'clock service in the Sanctuary

Some of our favorite hymns were written many generations ago. Christ The Lord is Risen Today was written in 1739, before the United States was founded. Amazing Grace in 1779, during the American Revolutionary War. And yet, these beloved hymns contain truths that still touch our hearts today. Don't miss this awesome opportunity to join Sue Ellenberger, Machala Comenschek and Sean Brown in the Sanctuary after second service on Sundays, February 6 through 27, 2022. Hear the stories behind the hymns and learn about the artists who wrote them. We'll sing them together, too! This is a class you will not want to miss—and it will be offered both in person and online. Sign up for updates!

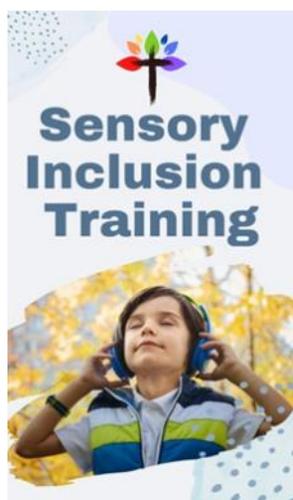

Lectio Divina

Mondays at 10:30 am and Tuesdays at 7 pm in The Chapel

Lectio divina is Latin for “sacred reading.” It’s a way of praying through the Scriptures that has been around for millennia. Through lectio divina we slow ourselves down, engage with Scripture, and bring the Bible into our life in a deeply personal way. Lectio Divina is an incredibly intimate way to hear God speak through the scriptures. No materials are necessary. Bring a Bible and a journal if you'd like. There are two opportunities each week, and you can drop in anytime. Join Jenny Gee on Mondays at 10:30 am or Tuesdays at 7 pm in the Chapel. As always, all are welcome, all the time! Please wear a mask.

COURAGEOUS INCLUSION

Would you like to help build a world with greater understanding, acceptance, and empathy toward those who have sensory needs? Set aside some time to complete the Kulture City Online training. It is eye opening — and you'll even get a certificate that you're sensory certified.

This training is open to everyone, and is particularly helpful for ushers, greeters, Sunday School teachers, and anyone who interacts with others. Use this link:

Changes to our Ministry Team

There's never a dull moment around BUMC! On behalf of myself and our Staff Parish Relations Committee, I have two announcements to make.

We are excited to welcome Matt Botzman as our Wiggle Room Coordinator! Matt has been a part of BUMC for three years and is an excellent fit for the position. VBS kids know and love him as their "favorite part of VBS!" Now, he'll be in our Wiggle Room each Sunday during worship services to welcome our littlest disciples and care for them while parents are in worship. Allie Kenney, who has been our Wiggle Room Coordinator for many years, resigned from her position at the end of 2021 so that she can commit more time to her job as a teacher in Lakewood. We're grateful for her time with us and overjoyed to have Matt as part of our BUMC Ministry Team!

Melissa Hinchman, our Office Manager, has made the difficult decision to step down from her position at the end of February. We are sad to see her go, but understand her need to commit more time to her family. Melissa shared with me how much she has loved getting to know the people of BUMC and is so grateful for the opportunity to work in such a wonderful and loving environment. Melissa will be working two days a week thru February. If you know someone who is interested and skilled at part-time office work, please let me know! I hear we're a great place to work!

- Take care, Pastor Heidi & The Staff Parish Relations Committee

Missions & Outreach

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. - 2 Corinthians 9:11

Missions & Outreach – Thank you for an IMPRESSIVE 2021! You came through as you always do, and it is very much appreciated by us and all those we helped.

THANK YOU FOR...

- ...your help writing 250 Christmas cards for Veterans at the Cleveland VA Hospital.
- ...your help on Bike Fixit Days to support the Bike Ministry coordinated by Jenny Gee, and for making 45 bows for the Yuletide Bicycle Give Away. What a fabulous outreach!
- ...Your Thanksgiving and Christmas Donations – Thank you so much for your generosity! You are all a Blessing!
 - Thanksgiving offering - $600 was collected and went towards Brecksville UMC's Commitment of $5000 for the 2021 Greater Cleveland Habitat for Humanity Faith Build House. This was added to the $1,098 collected at Easter. $3,302 from the 2021 operating budget of Missions & Outreach covered the balance.
 - Christmas offering was equally divided between Four local food banks: Brecksville-Broadview Heights Lend-a-Hand, North Royalton Food Pantry, The Emergency Assistance Center, and The Parma Heights Food Pantry. Additionally, M&O was able to add another $500 from our 2021 Operating Budget to each food pantry. What a Blessing!!
- Annual Hat & Mitten Tree was nicely decorated with these donated items and delivered to Afghan Refugees through Nehemiah Mission.
- Annual non-perishable food and cleaning supply tree overflowed with your generous donations and absolutely thrilled the Parma Heights Food Pantry. After the holidays, their donations drop off a little and these items will benefit many families.
- The Giving Tree helped Brecksville UMC's Bike Ministry, B. Riley House, Cleveland APL, Nehemiah Mission, and Rahab Ministries. Many items were donated, and the recipients were very pleased and surprised.

We lift up prayers of thanks to God for the way lives are touched when we reach out to one another in service. When our new tables and chairs arrived at the church earlier than expected, Matt Auble, Matt Mellott, Jinho Lee, Scott Campbell, Bob Lundholm, the Paroda and Hinchman families, and Jeff & Scott all jumped in and helped unload and unbox. It was no small feat! Nor is repairing a leak in the sanctuary ceiling. When the pews had to be moved to accommodate a lift for the painters, Jinho Lee, Mike Paroda and Doug Holmes made it happen. Ric Lesinski and the Gopher Team have been busy, organizing deliveries of communion elements, offering envelopes, and meals for those shut in by Covid and winter. And dear Linda Rollins, who is participating in worship every Sunday from her new home—in Texas! For all of the ways you are each part of our community of faith, we are thankful!

A Call for Cookies

The Bob Hope USO Lounge at Cleveland Hopkins airport is a space for U.S. Military Service Men and Women and their families. The USO provides a place to grab a snack, email a loved one, read a book, watch a movie, or just find some quiet time on a travel day.

The BUMC Eve Circle wants to help love these families by providing them home baked cookies! During the first week of February, they will have a collection box in the church kitchen freezer (marked USO). Help them fill it with your home made treats, packaged 6 per baggie. Questions? Call the office and they'll put you in touch with Lynn Hobzek.

Stitch'n'Time

Do you knit or crochet? Come to Stitch'n'Time, our church's daytime knitting/crocheting group! We meet on the third Tuesday of each month at 10 am in the Parlor. No experience necessary. Everyone is welcome! Projects include prayer shawls and lap blankets, hats and mittens, and baby blankets. Contact Sandy Crist 440.526.1494 for more information.

Asbury Bremeth

This ladies' study group meets on the second Thursday of each month during the school year. Join them for friendship, learning and conversation. We begin to gather at 9:30 for conversation, and continue our study of Andy Stanley's Follow at 10 am.

Let's Talk about the "Winter Blues"

Winter is the darkest time of the year, especially here in the Cleveland area. We average 70% cloud cover during the months of January and February. That means most of our winter days are without a ton of sunlight. All that lack of sunlight can make us feel sluggish, distant, and downright depressed. On top of these seasonal emotional changes, we are still in the middle of a pandemic, grieving the loss of much in our lives. If you are feeling sad, lonely, or angry more often than usual during these dark winter days, know that you are not alone in these feelings. And it's okay to not be okay. Self-care isn't always about feeling our best; much of the time self-care means recognizing how we feel and giving ourselves the grace to sit in it until the feelings pass. If this topic seems to be hitting close to home, Pastor Heidi will be preaching on the subject of grief during this month and we invite you to join us Sundays online or in-person as we explore this meaningful topic. If you feel like you need someone to talk to during this time, please reach out to our grief support staff, Pastor Heidi or Pastor Barb, through our office email, office@brecksvilleumc.com
